DEMOCRHTIC APPEAL TO S. J. TILDEN.

We are waiting, Sammy, waiting
For th' promised "explanation,"
Your record is our only hope
Of victory and salvation,
For if you fail 'tis very clear
That income tax will kill us,
And four years more of sorrow come
And disappointment fill us.

We are waiting, Sammy, waiting,
Ah! too long, we fear, too long,
For Ohio, in October,
Will go fifty thousand strong,
Yes! all of that against us, Sam—
Perhaps ten thousand more,
While we wait your "explanation"
'Bout which you falsely swore

We are waiting, Sammy, waiting,
Indiana's all ablaze,
For Harrison she's bound to go,
And then she'll go for Hayes
Oh! hurry up that document,
It yet may do us good,
Yes! fix it up somehow, or way
Just so its understood.

We are waiting, Sammy, waiting,
For the ship is coming o'er
That's bringing poor old Billy Tweed
To his native shores once more.
'Twould be well, when he arrived, Sam,
For you to interview him
And see that he shall tell no tales
If justice should pursue him.

We are waiting, Sammy, waiting,
For the devil is to pay,
You might have cleared your record up
If they'd kept poor Tweed away;
But with that income fraud of yours
And what the Boss may say,
We fear, will blast your ev'ry hope
While Hayes will win the day.

The Reason why.

The reason why Mr. Samuel J. Tilden committed perjury to avoid paying his income tax, in 1862, was not because he was a stingy man, for he is far from that. He keeps up, constantly, two establishments, one at Albany and the other in New York, besides a summer residence up the Hudson. He gives expensive parties, drives good horses and generally conducts himself as a man of generous impulses. He did as he did, because he had no sympathy with the government in its efforts to put down the rebellion, and was unwilling to contribute his just share towards the expenses of the war. He was too busy to sign a call for a Union meeting, and too hostile to the war to aid in the organization of even the Tammany regiment. It is no wonder, therefore, that he put off making his income return for six months after it was due, and then falsified it. Afterwards, for the same reason, he neglected to make any return, allowing the assessor to make it for him, and paid an amount which he well knew was not a fifth part of what he ought to have paid. He is a nice man to talk honesty and reform. Even "Boss" Tweed never did so mean a job of stealing. We'll warrant he never falsified an income return or allowed an assessor to make out a statement of his gains and losses.—Peoria Transcript.

A native-born Illinois farmer visiting the centennial, and "taking in" the East at the same time, says he can see some use in the folks there paving their streets, but "will be blamed if he can see any sense in their having the farms spread with cobble-stones!"

Burlington Hawkeye: A policeman gently but firmly laid his hands on a tramp he saw backing out of a kitchen window out on Wet Hill. They searched him, and found in his ragged satchel nine spoons, a silver mug, four pocket knives, three razors, a photograph album, a dark lantern, five breast pins, two watch chains, two handkerchiefs and some coin.

"Unhand me," he exclaimed to the policeman, "servile tool of a corrupt administration. What we need is reform." And they cast him into the pit.

FORTY YEARS BEFORE THE PUBLIC.

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for a rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE's LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them A FAIR TRIAL.

For all Bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine DR. C. McLANE's LIVER PILLS are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist on your druggist or storekeeper giving you the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Sold by all respectable druggists and country storekeepers generally.

To those wishing to give DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS a trial, we will mail post paid to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twenty-five cents.

THE Tammany correspondents in New York have been making a desperate effort to try to raise $100,000 to carry Indiana for "Blue Jeans" Williams

WHY don't the Democracy trot out Lew Steward at some of their "grand rallies." A speech from Lew at a Tilden and Hendricks meeting would be as good a card as his letter of acceptance, which, by the way, has not yet made its appearance.

A JOINT reunion of the surviving veterans of the 21st and 123d regiments Illinois volunteers, is to be held at Mattoon, October 10. Sunday, Oct. 8, is the anniversary of the battle of Perryville, and the time has been selected as near that time as possible. The first mentioned regiment is the one which Gen Grant first commanded.

THE New York Herald is not supporting anybody for the presidency, but is in favor of publishing the news and supporting the United States. It says (Sept. 28):

It is remarkable that a revival of trade should take place in the midst and heat of a presidential canvass, when usually, even in good times, trade suffers and becomes slack. If this business revival were felt only in the eastern cities it might properly be called one of the effects of the centennial exhibition. But trade is awakening and confidence reviving sensibly east and west. St. Louis journals note a large increase of country buyers and active trade. Chicago, Cincinnati and other western cities, report greater activity in trade than has been since 1873. From New Orleans we hear that the cotton crop coming into market has a marked effect upon business. New England reports hopeful efforts toward establishing an export trade. Wool, which has been dull for a long time, finds sale again. The Pittsburg papers speak cheerfully, even of the iron trade, which has been most depressed of any. There are, it seems, indications of an improved and improving business in the iron trade.

THE Pope's health, or rather the Pope's sickness, is again the subject of cable telegrams. This time it really appears that the old gentleman is in danger. He has already seen almost a decade more than "the years of Peter," and it cannot be expected that he will survive anything like a serious illness. Cardinal Antonelli is also reported to be in a critical condition. The simultaneous loss of these two men would be a serious matter to the Church over which they have ruled so long and so ably.

PETER COOPER is honest enough, but oh, how widely astray on the currency question! The idea that all the woes from which the country is suffering are the direct result of the appreciation in value of the greenback, and that we would be rolling in wealth if gold stood to-day at 250, sounds very much like one of the characteristic sophistries of unprincipled demagogues. It is a singular theory indeed to emanate from a man of the highest character, most childlike sincerity of purpose, largest philanthropy and general good judgment. It must be considered a melancholy example of the vagaries in certain lines of thinking to which the most worthy men are subject.—New York Witness.

"WHY WILL YOU VOTE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET?"

DECATUR, Sept 30, 1876

EDS REPUBLICAN —"Why will you vote the republican ticket?" Such is the heading of an elaborate editorial in the three cornered Samuel J. Tilden, Peter Cooper, anything to beat Hayes organ, issued in the garret of opera block. There are several reasons why the intelligent and educated masses of this country will vote the republican ticket. Some of the first are because the great republican party is a party "for the people and by the people," and represents the party of freedom, the party of loyalty, the party of equal rights to all, white or black, the party of honesty, reform and of progressive ideas, the party opposed to the corrupt and degraded teachings of the democratic party, the party when treason assailed the flag, with the aid of the better class of democracy fought successfully the battles of the Union and strangled treason, the party which believes in the education of the masses as essential to the preservation of our free republican institutions, the party opposed to the heresy of state rights; the party ever opposed to slavery in any form, either of the body or the intellect, a party which had its origin and growth in the divine exigencies and wants of the times, a party differing from the democratic party in this, that it believes in moral suasion instead of the "shot gun;" the party differing from the democratic party in this, that it prosecutes and punishes its own corrupt officials; the party of large heart and great magnanimity, as proven by granting pardon, amnesty and citizenship to the whole democratic rebel army who for four long years tried to dismember the government; the party, though in power, respects the opinion and rights of others, the party who believes the best road to peace and prosperity is through the strict observance and execution of the laws of the land; the party who believes a man has a right to express his political opinions north or south, without being riddled with buckshot; the party who believes the democratic party is a standing menace to the perpetuity of this Union; the party which never furnished a member for the Ku Klux, or Knights of the Golden Circle organization; the party opposed to pugilism, blacklegs, burglars, thieves, keepers of dens of prostitution and railroad wreckers. These are a few reasons why nearly all the good people of this glorious country of ours intend to and will vote for our noble standard bearers, Hayes and Wheeler, at the coming centennial presidential election.

CENTENNIAL.

AN EXPLANATION THAT DOES NOT EXPLAIN.

New York Tribune.

At last Gov. Tilden appears to explain the income business. We say Gov. Tilden appears, for the letter signed by the law clerk is evidently dictated by the master. It betrays all Gov. Tilden's peculiar dexterity, and is formidably elaborate and precise on the points of least consequence. The essential point it slurs. We have never held that there could be no plausible explanation for the meagre return for 1862. We have insisted that the circumstances demanded an explanation and that, if it were easy to make it, would not have been so long in coming. We think so still. The explanation as to 1862 is technical and hard strained, but if it stood alone, perhaps it might pass. When that return comes to be used steadily for ten years as the basis for escaping taxation on everything over fifteen thousand dollars at a time when his income was steadily a hundred thousand or more per year, the situation becomes monstrous Gov. Tilden may indeed have kept himself within the letter of the law, but it is plain that he evaded its spirit. He could not be sent to the penitentiary, as he is trying to send Jarvis Lord, for defrauding the government, but he contrived to keep the Government from getting out of him the money to which it was entitled. He did not tell the horse car conductor that he had paid his fare, but he kept his hands in his pockets, and looked unconcernedly at the conductor as if he had; and the effect was the same. When the conductor detects such a passenger, he generally wants to put him off the car. When the American people find him running as a Reform candidate for the Presidency, they are going to vote for the other man.

MR. TILDEN—running as a "reformer"—is assailed every day by the leading Republican organs, and by many powerful Independent journals, and charged with serious crimes, and with much which, if true, would make him unfit to become President. In a reform canvass, charges of railroad wrecking, shin plaster issues, packing caucuses, buying conventions, perjury, and defrauding the government are very serious allegations, it must be conceded by every intelligent man who has not nursed hide-bound prejudice since his infancy. Some of these charges are not even contradicted in a way to meet the accusation fairly and comprehensively—Albany Times, Dem.

HON DEMAS BARNES ON TILDEN.

Hon. Demas Barnes, a Democratic ex member of Congress, and editor of the Brooklyn Argus, some time ago wrote a long letter to the Ohio State Journal, in which he showed up some of the crookednesses of Slippery Sam Tilden. A Michigan Democrat, doubting the authenticity of the published letter, wrote to Mr. Barnes, asking if he was really the author of the article, and whether he knew positively that the charges made against Mr. Tilden were true To that inquiry Mr. Barnes responded as follows, under date of Sept. 21

Your letter of 16th inst., making certain political inquiries, was duly received. Most of the facts in relation to Governor Tilden's public career have been set forth in the Brooklyn Argus, and some of them were repeated in my letter to the Ohio State Journal, of which you make mention. I have spoken in the interest of my country, and in the interest of the Democratic party.

I supported Mr. Tilden for Governor two years ago, his record being then unknown. His majority in the State was a little over 38,000. Over one-third of this majority was given to him in this city, where the Argus is published.

The Democratic party is in the minority in the country. To succeed it has to earn the confidence of the people and secure Republican votes. With McClellan as a military candidate in 1864, we were beaten by 411,000 majority. In 1868 we nominated our ablest statesman, Horatio Seymour. Again we were beaten by 400,000 majority. In 1872 our leaders decided to nominate a Presidential candidate from within the Republican ranks. But with Mr. Greeley and an inconsistent platform we fared worse than before, and came 702,000 votes behind our opponents.

With these results staring us in the face, it behooved the Democrats at this time to have a consistent platform and nominate men whose integrity of character would recommend them to the conscience of the people. Mr. Tilden's character has become well known to the leaders prior to the St Louis Convention. He was repudiated by Charles O'Conor, Horatio Seymour, Chief Justice Church, Judge Parker, Augustus Schell, and the best men of his party in this State. But he made his arrangements with the plunderers of our State. He packed the State Convention by the use of executive influence, and through extensive advertising in the Southern States he succeeded in securing the nomination.

The Democrats could have carried all but six of the States, and would have swept Grantism out of existence with almost any other candidate than Tilden. An aspirant for the high position of President must always face his antecedents. Mr. Tilden's antecedents are now spread before the world. I regret to say that they are worse than those of Aaron Burr, or those of any man who ever before sought high office in this country. He is corrupt, ambitious, unscrupulous, and despotic. He virtually opposed feeding our soldiers during the war by making false returns of his income and refusing to pay his taxes. He was a member of the Committee on Resolutions at the Chicago Convention in 1864, which reported the resolution, "We demand a cessation of hostilities." He defrauded the government by issuing illegal currency on the Upper Michigan peninsula, and secured exemption from his penalities and taxes by smuggling a "relief bill" through Congress. He was the head of the great Northwestern Railroad ring, which led to the granger rebellion, and was compelled by a decision of the United States Supreme Court to restore over $2,000,000 of stock wrongfully taken from Julius Wadsworth and other owners of the Chicago Railroad. He was associated with Tweed's ring in New York City, and received compensation by under assessments of his property, etc.

These are a few of the transactions in the career of our candidate, which, if indorsed by a majority of the American people by electing Tilden as President, will undermine the integrity of our party, and open the door for ambitious and unprincipled villains to overthrow our institutions. The Democratic party cannot afford success at any such sacrifice of its principles.

Grant is not now a candidate. He and his first, second, and third choice were beaten at the Cincinnati Convention. But were Grant a candidate the country could better bear another four years of his administrative rule than it could the tyranny of an unprincipled man like Tilden, who would owe his election, if elected, to the corrupt plunderers in the North and the rebels in the South. Respectfully,

DEMAS BARNES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The so called safe burglary conspiracy, in which General Babcock and Thomas P. Somerville were defendants, and which has been on trial for the past two weeks, was concluded this evening, by the jury returning a verdict of not guilty in each case. The jury was out for two hours, returning about 6 o'clock. Persons present expressed their gratification at the result by cheers and other demonstrations.

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

Opening of the Moody and Sankey Meetings in Chicago.

IMMENSE CROWDS IN ATTENDANCE.

Death of the California Millionaire, James Lick.

THE HARMONIOUS CHICAGO DEMOCRACY.

Colorado's Election.

CHICAGO, October 1.—The Moody and Sankey meetings opened this morning at eight o'clock, all arrangements about the great tabernacle being complete. Seven thousand people greeted Mr. Moody's first appearance, and the spirit of the session was that of a reunion of old friends and Christian brothers. Many city pastors were on the platform. Sankey sang with good voice and effect, and the choir was harmonious. Dr. Goodwin, of the First Congregational church, prayed with fervor, and the address by Dr. Moody was characteristic, and was directed to Christian workers, the text being taken from John 11th, 39th, "Jesus said, take away the stone." The point of the discourse was the duty of Christians to rid their hearts of whatever rendered them unfit for the work the of Lord. Pride, covetousness, unbelief prejudice and sectarian bigotry must be taken from the Lord's way, and he will do his work of raising the dead to spiritual life After the benediction by Bishop Cheney, there were great hand-shakings and hearty greetings.

Half an hour before the afternoon service the tabernacle was full and there were people enough in the streets, who had come to the meeting, to fill a dozen churches. Mr. Moody preached from these words. "He that reapeth receiveth wages." John 4, xxxvi. The discourse was a perfect torrent of gospel enthusiasm, and sanctified common sense passed out with such rapid utterance as almost to confuse the ear. Reverend Drs. Kittridge, Chamberlin, Goodman and Thompson, led an overflow meeting in Farwell Hall. Dr. Thompson said: "We asked for great things, but God has exceeded our request." Sankey sang "The Ninety and Nine," and "Watching and Waiting."

At the evening meeting at Farwell Hall, twelve persons professed themselves as seeking Christ.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—The democrats of the Third congressional district this afternoon nominated J. V. Lemoyne by acclamation, and in the first district two sets of officers were nominated, and after considerable trouble, which nearly ended in personal encounters, the two factions adjourned to different halls, when one unanimously nominated J. R. Hoxie, and the other nominated Bernard G. Caulfield by acclamation.

The democrats of the second congressional district, west side, to day re-nominated Carter Harrison by acclamation.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Mr. Caulfield is to state in a letter published to-morrow, that he positively declines to be a candidate under the circumstances, and while he thanks his friends for their zeal in his behalf, hopes they will, in the interest of harmony in the party, accept this as an ultimatum

MANSFIELD, O., Oct. 1.—Charles Francis Adams, in a letter, announces, on account of his voice, his inability to comply with the request of the democratic committee, to speak here. He discusses at some length the political issues of the day, and arrives at the conclusion that it would be unsafe to entrust the country to the republican pary another presidential term. He said that though nothing can be said against Gov. Hayes, that he is not so tried a reformer as Tilden, and is probably less able to cope with the corruption that prevails in the country. He comments on the fact that Bristow's Cincinnati following was comparatively small, though he represented the best reform element in the republican party. He places against this fact the nomination of Tilden at St. Louis, as an indication of firm determination to redeem the character of the country from disgrace.

DENVER, Col., September 30.—The election in this state next Tuesday will determine the choice of Colorado for President, as the Legislature to be elected will, under an ordinance of the constitutional convention, choose the three Presidential electors. There are also to be elected a member of Congress and all the State officers. At the last general election in the territory, Patterson, democrat, was elected by a majority of 2,300 The present canvass has been throughout most earnestly conducted by both parties, and party lines are drawn unusually close.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1—James Lick died in this city at 1 o'clock this morning. He has been gradually sinking for several days, his death resulting from a mere decay of nature. The remains are lying in state at Pioneers' Hill. The funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon. Since the last change in trustees of his charity fund, deceased had frequently expressed himself better satisfied with the condition of affairs, but has manifested considerable concern at not hearing from his son, John Lick, of Fredericksburg, Lebanon county, Penn, to whom both letters and telegrams had been sent, requesting his resignation as one of the trustees. All the rest of the old board have tendered their resignations, though they have not yet been confirmed by the courts. The trustees say that business is in such a shape that no complications can ensue in carrying out Lick's charitable designs, though there is some fear expressed that the action of John Lick implies the intention of contesting matters in the courts. The trust fund is estimated at about $5,000,000.

PLYMOUTH, Ind., September 30.—A horrible accident, which resulted in the death of five persons, occurred to-day on the farm of Wm. Johnson, ten miles south of this place, caused by the explosion of a boiler of an engine connected with the threshing-machine. The following persons were killed: Wm Johnson and two sons, a young man named Sturgeon and David Logan, whose body could not be found, and is supposed to have been blown to atoms. Lack of water in the boiler was the cause.

ALREADY the infamous cry is raised that the people of the United States who are not willing to concede that the war was fought in vain, and worse than in vain, are a sectional party, and are agitators, incendiaries, and injurious to the southern trade. This was the outcry of the premeditated rebel just as the country was about to be plunged in to war. Then, as now, there was a solid south. Slavery made a despotism. It was the meanest, the most reckless, the most ignorant, brutal and intolerant despotism that has in many centuries disgraced the earth. The programme of the politicians who carried their sections into war, was that this despotism must be nationalized. Opposition to them was sectionalism. Opposition to them was rebellion. They were the great and only interpreters of the constitution. The election of Abraham Lincoln was a revolt. It was the fortune of war, however, that slavery was destroyed. The southern confederacy was conquered. The confederates knew before the end of the war that they had made a mistake. They thought the northern democrats would help them. The general notion of accepting the situation at the end of the war was that they were upon the whole ready to return and accept their old situation as rulers of the whole country. They have been to some extent disappointed in their calculations. Every objection to restoring southern rule the confederates have called "fighting the war over again." All reference to the system of massacre by which the blacks have been intimidated and disfranchised is shaking the "bloody shirt," and northern sensibility to to the solid south is met by the old familiar shout that there can be no peace without submission to the south.

All persons who believe the white inhabitants of the territory that was barbarized by slavery have an inalienable right to rule this country, should vote the democratic ticket.—Cincinnati Commercial.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

WHEREAS, John S. Taggart and Jennie Taggart, his wife, grantors, by their certain trust deed, dated the ninth day of November, 1872, recorded in the Recorder's office of Macon county, Illinois, in book No. thirty-five (35), page 296, of the deed record of said county, did convey unto the undersigned, Wm. L. Hammer, as trustee, the following described premises, situate in the city of Decatur, county of Macon, State of Illinois, to-wit: Lot number seven (7), in block number three (3), in the Western Addition to said city of Decatur, to secure the payment of one certain promissory note in said trust deed described, made by said John S. Taggart, dated the ninth day of November, A. D. 1872, and payable to the order of Thomas O. Smith, and due six months after the date thereof, for the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, with five per cent damages per month, if not paid when due; And whereas, it is provided in and by said trust deed, that in case default be made in the payment of said note according to the tenor thereof, that the said trustee should advertise and sell said premises under the powers and provisions of said trust deed, to make the amount of said indebtedness, together with the costs, commissions and expenses of said sale;

And whereas, default has been made in the payment of said note, and the same remains unpaid;

And whereas, the legal holders of said note have made application to the undersigned, as such trustee, to sell and dispose of said premises under the powers in said deed contained, and for the purposes therein specified;

Now therefore, public notice is hereby given that I will, on the Thirtieth day of October, A. D. 1876,

at the hour of two o'clock p. m. of said day, at the front door of the Court House in Decatur, in said county, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, the premises above, and in said trust deed described, and all the homestead rights and all the right and equity of redemption of the said John S. Taggart and Jennie Taggart, their heirs and assigns therein.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce the name JACOB LICHTENBERGER as an Independent candidate for Sheriff of Macon county.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

..For nice fresh oysters go to Imboden's

..Call on Niedermyer, near the Mound, for fruit and vegetables.

For the best butter and fresh eggs, call at Newell & Hammer's.

..A full supply of choice vegetables always on hand at H. F. May & Bro.'s.

..Harvey Downing's hack connects with all trains.

..The St. Louis Fair opens to-day.

..There are some few cases of typhoid fever in the city.

..One week from to-morrow tells the story in Ohio and Indiana. From now until then there will be warm work in those States.

..Regular monthly meeting of the city council to-night.

..Quite a frost this morning.

..Weathermongers predict a warm, pleasant spell of weather after this cool turn.

..The moon is getting on a bender and will soon be full.

...For B. F. Taylor's hack leave orders at Armstrong's drug store.

..A full supply of nice fat chickens and fresh eggs, at Billy Niedermyer's.

..The base ball business is played out for this season.

..Geese still run at large in defiance of municipal law and the pound-master. How dare they do it?

..More country people in town to-day than is usual for Monday.

..A new carpet is the making of a room, and all who need one should call at Abel & Locke's.

.."A few flowers"—and on Sunday at that.

..The dying poet, Goethe, on his deathbed used these last words "More light." The dying philanthropist of to-day, thinking of the welfare of millions of his fellow-beings, might very naturally say, "More soap." He could hardly fail to utter this ejaculation, if a thought of the magical properties of B. T. Babbitt's Best Soap happened to cross his waning memory.

New Hose Carriage.—The new hose carriage for Eldorado Hose Co., No. 2, will arrive to-morrow. The members of the company return their thanks to the citizens of Decatur for their generous contributions toward the purchase of this beautiful carriage and reel.

Coming.—Furbish's Fifth Avenue Theatrical Company is enroute for the West, and we are glad to learn is to make a stand of one evening in Decatur. The previous visits of this magnificent company to our city have won golden opinions for the troupe here. Their presence will be a guarantee for a crowded house.

Removal.—W. T. Cussins, Esq., has removed his office from Powers' Block to the room in Central Block recently occupied by Hon. A. B. Bunn.

Every one whose watch, clock or jewelry needs repairing, should take it to Curtis & Righter's, as they attend to all work themselves, and warrant satisfaction in every instance. 3dw1

Everybody who is finishing a new house, or repairing an old one, should see those beautiful designs of wall-paper at Abel & Locke's.

Firemen's Tournament.—Messrs. C. Ahrens & Co. of Cincinnati, have sent out postal cards to 1500 different cities and towns, saying that they will have on exhibition at the tournament in this city, Oct. 10, 11 and 12, one of their improved Latta Steam Fire Engines.

The Water Witch Engine Company, of Quincy, with their hand machine, will be here to participate in the tournament. Up to this time 36 different companies have given notice of their intention to be present.

The Commercial Institute, west side of the Old Square, offers as good a course in book-keeping, penmanship, &c, as any other. By going there you save traveling expenses and board bills.

Don't Forget that H. Post is closing out his stock of stationery at less than first cost. This is a rare chance to get writing material cheap.

Among the many heating stoves in the market, the "Good Record" is attracting much attraction. It is a hard coal base burner, and has a boiling place and oven, so that it can be used as a sitting-room cook stove if desired. For ease of management, cleanliness, and economy in fuel, this stove has no superior. Call and see it, at R. C. Crocker's hardware and stove store on North Water street.

J. P. Marsh still retains the championship as a fine boot-maker, and also keeps one of the most select and complete stocks of ready-made boots and in Decatur.

Overcoats! Overcoats! At much less than first cost, are now selling at Minckley & Dodson's, also, a large lot of underwear and general clothing, all from a bankrupt stock, that must be sold regardless of price. Now is the time to buy, and all who are in want of goods in that line should avail themselves of the opportunity.

Such a Getting Up and Down.—On Saturday afternoon a curious sight was noticeable to the passers by, at the corner of East Main and State streets. Three fellows, as drunk as they could well be, were the actors, and the programme was something as follows

One of them was already down on the sidewalk, and the other two were doing their best to get him on to his feet. They finally succeeded, and the fellow was only fairly on his feet when down went one of the others Then came the job of getting him on his pins, and by dint of perseverance the feat was finally accomplished by his comrades in distress; but sorrow of sorrows, as this one leaned up against the building for support, down went the third chap, who keeled over on the walk, and then came another job of lifting to get him on his feet. True to each other in their mutual tribulations, the two forlorn looking specimens of humanity bent to their task, and after a great deal of lifting and tumbling about, during which all three lay a part of the time in one pile, the trio regained their feet and managed to get against the building, where they were standing when last seen by our reporter.

IMPORTANT CORRESPONDENCE.

The following correspondence explains itself:

DECATUR, ILL., Sept. 29, 1876.

PROF. E. A. GASTMAN—Dear Sir: The interest awakened by the address you recently delivered before the county Sunday School convention, upon the subject of Parental Instruction, has created a conviction that an opportunity should be given to the public to hear the wholesome truths contained in that address. The undersigned would therefore request you to repeat the address, or the substance thereof, at the First M. E. church, on Sunday evening, October 8th, 1876, at 7:30 p. m.

DECATUR, ILL., Oct. 2, 1876.

Rev. Horace Reed, J. R. Gorin and others:
GENTLEMEN—The address referred to in your note of the 29th ult., was mostly extemporaneous, but I will, with pleasure, comply with your request to repeat "the substance of it" at the time and place mentioned.

Yours truly, E. A. GASTMAN.

FISH! FISH!

If you want good, fresh oysters and salt water fish, call at the Gulf Oyster and Fish Depot, on Prairie street, opposite the post office. We have just received and offer for sale prime sea fish, such as red-snappers, red fish, sheepheads, flounders, ocean and sweetwater trout, croakers, pan fish, mullets, pike, bass, perch and many other species of the piscatorial tribe. Also, wild game, including Mallard Ducks, Prairie Chickens, &c., &c. Dealers will find it to their interest to call upon us, as our connections are such as to enable us to sell to them as cheap as they can purchase in any eastern or southern markets, when cost of transportation is added. To be Repeated.—By reference to correspondence between some of our prominent citizens and Professor Gastman, which appears in another place, it will be seen that the very interesting address on "Parental Instruction," delivered by Prof. Gastman before the Macon county Sunday School Convention in this city is to be repeated at the First M. E. Church on Sunday evening next. We are glad that such an arrangement has been made, and we trust that parents generally will avail themselves of the opportunity of listening to the wholesome truths which the address contains.

The Excursion Yesterday.—The excursion train from Mattoon to Decatur yesterday, consisted of three cars, which were well filled on the arrival of the train in this city, about twelve o'clock. The excursionists dined at the different hotels and restaurants, though a majority took dinner at Priest's, where special rates had been arranged for. In the course of the afternoon many visited Imboden's Medical Spring, and all took a view of the town. Most of the party were orderly, well-disposed people, though some few got pretty "full," and were somewhat noisy. The train left for Mattoon about 5 o'clock. This will probably be the last local excursion of the season, as the patronage was not sufficiently encouraging to authorize another.

Our City Park.—Already these grounds present an inviting appearance, and the improvements thus far made are highly gratifying to our people. The work will be fully completed this fall, so that the full benefits of the improvements will be enjoyed next season. A number more trees are needed in parts of the ground, and we presume the deficiency will be supplied this fall, so that next year we shall have a city park of which we may justly be proud.

THE CHURCHES YESTERDAY.

The weather yesterday was favorable to church going rather than otherwise The air being rather too chilling for pleasant walking or riding, the inclination of the people in that direction was not very strong, so that many who might have indulged in those modes of passing the day had the air been genial, found it comfortable to sit an hour in church At the churches where service was held, gathered good congregations both morning and evening the pastor, Rev Horace Reed, preached a sermon preparatory to the communion, founded on the words, "Do this in remembrance of me." The discourse dwelt upon the Lord's Supper as a sacrament in the church, and upon the circumstances attending its institution.—At the close of the sermon the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered, in which all christians present were invited to participate.

At the

FIRST M. E. CHURCH

STAPP'S CHAPEL.

The pastor delivered a very interesting sermon on the Christian Character and its Rewards, as described in Isaiah, 33rd chaper, 15th 16th and 17th verses, showing conclusively that men of such characters always possess the confidence and command the esteem of the world, and hold the highest honors in every walk of life. His position is invulnerable; he has the promise of God's richest provision during life, and at last of inheriting the glory which was Christ's before the "world was."

After the sermon the pastor's report for this conference year was read, showing an increase of 44 members, the expenditure of over $2,500, benevolent collections, $425, etc, and a healthy financial condition.

A general class meeting concluded the services, which was very spirited, a large number participating.

The Sabbath School passed resolutions, thanking Mr. J. P. Moore for the many kind services he willingly and ably rendered to the schools.

Rev. T. D. Weems delivered the evening discourse, based on 1st John, 5th chap. and 3rd verse, treating religion under three heads, of Knowledge, Love, and Obedience, showing the dependence of each component on the others, and that the obedience or keeping of God's commands is not an unpleasant task but "our reasonable service;" also His commands are framed so as to be in harmony with man's best interest. The discourse closed with an earnest exhortation.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Elder Haynes occupied the pulpit yesterday, morning and evening, and was at both times favored with good audiences. In the morning he preached a very plain and practical sermon on "A Model Church," which was based on a part of the 12th chapter of 1st Corinthians. In the evening he delivered a very interesting discourse in the words of Christ to Philip, "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father also."

PERSONAL MENTION.

The accomplished daughter of Mr. Mansfield, of Morgan county, Ill., who has been visiting the family of Mr. J. W. Ham and friends, departed for her home to-day.

Rev. Horace Reed, pastor of the First M. E. church, and Rev. Mr. Best, pastor of Stapp's Chapel, leave for Paris, the seat of the M. E. Conference, in the early part of this week. The conference session opens on Wednesday morning.

Mrs Burgett returned on Saturday from a trip to Vandalia and some other points; where she has been visiting friends.

Miss Anna Green has just returned from an Eastern trip, having visited friends in New Hampshire, and taken a look at the Centennial during her absence.

Rev. T. D. Weems leaves to-morrow for Paris, the seat of the Illinois Conference.

MILLIONS OF PEOPLE IN Agony.

Physicians Cornered!

I suppose there is not in the whole of a physician's experience anything in human suffering which calls forth his sympathy and pity, to such an extent, as to witness the excruciating pains of a poor mortal suffering from the fearful disease of Rheumatism. Heretofore there has been considerable diversity of opinion among medical men as to the true character of this disease; some locating it in the fibrous or muscular tissues of the system, and others viewing it as an acute nervous disorder, but it is now generally admitted to be a disease arising from a poison circulating in the blood, and further it is admitted that rheumatism can never be thoroughly cured without exterminating such poisonous matters from the blood by a constitutional internal remedy. We feel confident that none will be better satisfied and rejoice more than the conscientious physician, who has found out that a true cure for this stubborn disease has been discovered. The following testimony from a Boston business man cannot fail to satisfy all that the

Diamond Rheumatic Cure

is a wonderful Medical Discovery.

Home Testimony.

BOSTON, Jan. 1st, 1875.

PROF. ALPHONSE HILLER:

Dear Sir—I desire to state that for the past three years I have been troubled greatly troubled with rheumatic pains; so severe was the last attack that I was compelled to remain in bed a helpless sufferer, and this is the most hurried season of my business too. A friend brought me two bottles of your valuable medicine, the DIAMOND RHEUMATIC Cure, and with pleasure I state that those two bottles affected a permanent cure upon me. Six months have since passed, and no return of this terrible disease has troubled me; I have on various occasions since recommended the DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE to several of my afflicted neighbors, and always with a uniform result—a certain and perfect cure in each case. I am willing to be interviewed and verbally satisfy any fellow sufferer of the truth of this statement.

Yours respectfully,
P. SHEEAN, Merchant Tailor,
33 Sudbury Street.

The discoverer of this medicine has walked the aisles of the hospitals of London and Paris for the last twenty years, making Rheumatism a specialty, and the prescription from which this remedy is compounded is all he ever used in the treatment of this disease. For the past year it has been used with perfect success and satisfaction in the hospitals of Montreal, and is recommended by the very best practitioners in that city as a safe, speedy and positive cure of either gout or rheumatism.

In simple cases sometimes one or two doses suffice. In most chronic cases it is sure to give way by the use of four or five bottles.

This medicine is for sale by all Druggists throughout the United States and Canada. If it happens that your druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send for it to

CHAIN PUMPS!

THE SUBSCRIBER WOULD RESPECTfully announce to the citizens of Decatur and Macon and adjoining counties, that he has secured the EXCLUSIVE RIGHT to

MANUFACTURE AND SELL

MERRILL & BARTLETT'S

Water-Purifying

Rubber Bucket Chain Pump,

And is prepared to furnish said Chain Pumps on short notice.

The advantages of this Pump over many others are many. The Chain being buttonless, it is much lighter, consequently it is not liable to break, and works much easier. The RUBBER BUCKETS which are attached to the Chain will not wear the Tubing, consequently it will last longer than when Metal Buttons are used. It is, positively ANTI-FREEZING. It is a positive WATER PURIFIER, as each Bucket is constructed with an AIR CHAMBER, which carries a given quantity of pure air into the water, which immediately diffuses through the entire body of water, purifying and cleaning, and rendering it fit for use RUPTURE A speedy and radical cure for Rupture or hernia, in young or old, guaranteed by the Judson method of treatment. A solid cure or no fee. Call on or write to Dr. Judson, 705 Chestnut street, St. Louis, Mo.

Dr. Whittier,

617 St. Charles street, St. Louis, Mo.

A regular graduate of two Medical Colleges, has been longer engaged in the special treatment of all Venereal, Sexual and Chronic Diseases than any other Physician in St. Louis, as city papers show, and all old residents know.

Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Orchitis, Hernia, or Rupture, all Urinary Diseases and Syphilitic or mercurial affections of the throat, skin or bones, are treated with unparalleled success, on latest scientific principles. Safely, Privately.

Spermatorrhœa, Sexual Debility and Impotency, as the result of Self-abuse in youth, sexual excesses in maturer years, or other causes, and which produce some of the following effects: nervousness, seminal emissions, debility, dimness of sight, defective memory, pimples on the face, physical decay, aversion to society of females, confusion of ideas, loss of sexual power, etc., rendering marriage improper or unhappy, are permanently cured. Pamphlet (36 pages) relating to the above, sent in sealed envelopes, for two postage stamps. Consultation at office or by mail free, and invited, a friendly talk or his opinion costs nothing. When it is inconvenient to visit the city for treatment, medicines can be sent by express or mail everywhere. Curable cases guaranteed, where doubt exists it is frankly stated. Office hours: 9 A. M. to 7 P. M. Sundays, 12 M. to 1 P. M.

Pamphlet, to any address, for Two Stamps.

MANHOOD All about it, sent by mail for 10 cents.
WOMANHOOD Every woman should read it. 10 cents.
Sent sealed, all three, for 20 Cents.
Manhood and Womanhood in German, both together, illustrated, 15 Cents.

MARRIAGE 260 PAGES. FINE PLATES. GUIDE.

Elegant cloth and gilt binding. Sealed for 50c. Over fifty wonderful pen pictures, true to life; articles on the following subjects: Who may marry, who not, why. Proper age to marry. Who marry first, Manhood, Womanhood, Physical decay. The effects of celibacy and excess. Who should marry; How life and happiness may be increased. The Physiology of Reproduction, and many more. Those married or contemplating marriage should read it.

After a life long practice, I assert from human as well as moral conviction, it ought to be read by all adult persons, then locked up, not laid around or lost, as it is worthy of re-reading. It contains the cream of medical literature, thoughts gathered in an extensive practice, and worth to any one who will give it a careful perusal, ten times its costs.

Popular Edition, same as above, but paper cover, 200 pages, 25 cents by mail. Cheapest good guide in America. For either address, enclosing amount,
